Re: Scholarship program for the Executive Master in Development Policies and Practices

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are very pleased to announce that the online application for the Executive Master in Development Policies and Practices (DPP) for 2017-2018 is now open (<http://dpp.graduateinstitute.ch/home.html>). The deadline for the application is March 15, 2017.

The DPP is an international Executive Master program jointly organized by the Geneva-based Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID) and the Asian Institute of Technology in Vietnam (AITVN). The program is designed for development practitioners, Asian and Expatriates, working for national, international, public or private organizations in the Greater Mekong countries (mainly Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, and Vietnam). The program is divided in 3 Modules that lasts 2 full-time months and 4 part-time months at the participants' place of work.

- Module 1 (full-time): July - August 2017 in Hanoi, Vietnam (5 weeks)
- Module 2 (part-time): September - December 2017 (4 months at the participants' place of work)
- Module 3 (full-time): January - February 2018 in Geneva (3 weeks in Geneva gathering all participants from other regions)

The criteria for admission are:

- ⇒ Professionals who currently hold or aspire to hold key positions in a development or international cooperation role, in public or private-sector, NGOs or civil society associations
- ⇒ University degree (minimum 3 years) and several years of professional experience (or an equivalent combination of training and experience)
- ⇒ Support of the candidate's organization
- ⇒ Proficiency either in English, French or Spanish
- ⇒ Optimal age: between 30 and 45 years

An introduction workshop of the DPP program will be held in Hanoi on Friday, 13 Jan 2017 at the Asian Institute of Technology, B3 Building, University of Transport and Communication, Lang Thuong, Dong Da, Hanoi. For further information and to register to the workshop, please contact Ms. Bich Diep at: diep@aitcv.ac.vn, 0936262684 or Ms. Pham Thuy at pthuy@aitcv.ac.vn, 0983437728.

We do hope that this program is of interest to your organization and your partner institutions. We would highly appreciate your help in disseminating the program information to all potential candidates.

Sincerely yours,

Ms. Hanan Salama
DPP Southeast Asia Regional Adviser

THE GRADUATE INSTITUTE, GENEVA: A WELL-ESTABLISHED REPUTATION

The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies is an acclaimed institution of research and post-graduate education dedicated to the study of world affairs, with a particular emphasis on the cross-cutting fields of international relations and development issues. The Institute is a longstanding member of the prestigious Association of Professional Schools of International Affairs (APSIA). Through our core activities, we aim to promote international cooperation and make a contribution to the progress of developing societies. More broadly, we endeavour to develop creative thinking on the major challenges of our time, foster global responsibility and advance respect for diversity.

Executive Education incorporates the Institute's thematic research on important global issues in its programmes for working professionals, and provides a multi-stakeholder platform for forward-looking analysis and professional development.

A WORLD-CLASS LOCATION

Geneva is home to many of the world's prominent international organisations, hundreds of non-governmental organisations as well as numerous headquarters of leading multinational companies, making it an ideal place to study, teach and research global issues. Villa Barton, the Institute's primary Executive Education centre, is located in the United Nations district of the city, in a scenic park on the shores of Lake Geneva, next to the World Trade Organization.
